

Florida Association of Counties 2005 Annual Conference and Educational Exposition

Tampa Marriott Waterside Hotel and Marina
June 21-24, 2005
Hillsborough County

We're all about Florida! The Florida Association of Counties 2005 Annual Conference is all about learning, networking, and sharing best practices to better serve Florida's communities. Hundreds of county officials will gather in Tampa for this important event, so don't miss this opportunity to reap the benefits for your county.

Located at the Tampa Marriott Waterside Hotel and Marina, the conference offers the right combination of education programs, information sharing and fellowship. From workshops with outstanding speakers to an exposition hall filled with knowledgeable service providers, participants will gain new ideas and practices they can apply on the job.

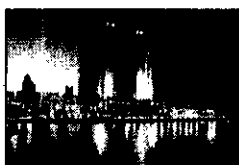

We're all about fun too. Sign up for the pre-conference golf outing or plan to attend the traditional President's Reception. There's also the annual President's Party and Family Fun Night, themed "License to Chill." So bring your flip flops and make plans now to attend the 2005 Annual Conference and Educational Exposition.
